MACHINE RECORDS PASSING
TRAINS AND COAL WAGONS
FOR PASTIME.

Real Quakes are Passed up but Observer Can Tell When Ze Morning Local is 10 Minutes Late—Father Adams Will Overhaul Instrument to Find What is Trouble.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 10.—Since last October the seismograph at Gonzaga university in Spokane has failed to register disturbances of the earth, but it has recorded the passage of coal wagons and other heavily loaded vehicles on nearby streets, according to Father Adams of the faculty. The intricate mechanism is being overhauled by Father Adams, who says: "It is a peculiar instrument. I can plainly tell by glancing at the instrument's recording sheet when the street cars that pass near the university are two minutes late, but I can not tell when there is an earthquake. It is so sensitive that a load of coal passing here will register on the paper and if there is another wagon following it will show also. I can keep check on all of the trains arriving and departing from the city by watching the instrument. It is a perfect little time table, but it does not do the work that we require of it. I can find nothing wrong with the instrument and have adjusted it to a fine point of sensitiveness, but there is a fault somewhere."

STARTS BANK ACCOUNT WITH 500 NICKELS.

These coins have been scarce in Spokane, states W. D. Vincent, cashier of the bank.

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

BRING BACK ITS COLOR AND LUSTRE WITH GRANDMA'S
SAGE TEA RECIPE.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready to use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

ATHENA MEETING STARTS FIGHT ON HOME RULE LAW

Athena, Ore., Feb. 10, 1914.
Editor East Oregonian:

The Hon. Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, addressed a good audience at the Christian church here Saturday afternoon, after which resolutions of which the enclosed is a copy, was adopted without a dissenting voice.

G. B. WOODWARD.
Whereas, We as citizens and taxpayers of Umatilla county, State of Oregon, believing that the so-called Home Rule Law of the state is a delusion and a sham; that it was adopted by the people under misapprehension and that it should be repealed at the next general election in the interest of good government and fair play:

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the rural portions of the several counties have an interest direct and important in the regulation of the liquor traffic in cities located within their boundaries because it is conceded that three-fourths of the criminals who appear before the courts, are led to crime through intoxication, and the courts are maintained by the state as part of the state government:

And be it further Resolved, that in our judgment municipal court records and the records in the office of the governor of the state, as indicated by the appeals for assistance in suppressing vice demonstrate that under the so-called Home Rule law there has been a marked increase in crime:

And be it further Resolved, that because of the Home Rule law, voters of the state who must bear a substantial part of the burden of taxation are prevented from exercising their inherent right of self protection against the lawless saloon interests:

And be it further Resolved, that we urge the law abiding people of the state to organize in the several communities of the state in preparation for the next election and the repeal of said Home Rule law:

And be it further Resolved, that it is the duty of every voter, of what ever party he or she may belong, to ascertain the standing of all candidates for public office, especially the candidates for governor and the legislature on this vital question, and to oppose all candidates who refuse to align themselves with the people, in this effort to repeal that obnoxious and unfair piece of legislation:

And be it further Resolved, that we urge all granges, farmers unions, the W. C. T. U. labor organizations, and associations of taxpayers and individuals interested in good government, to make this a subject of discussion, and to join with us in this movement:

And be it further Resolved, that we approve the action of the upper house of the last legislature, in voting to resubmit the Home Rule amendment to the people:

And be it further Resolved, that in the interest of good government, we appeal to men and women everywhere, to unite in solid phalanx, in this battle for the homes of the commonwealth, and better social conditions.

FINE CITRUS CROP.

California Has Banner Year—General Outlook Promising.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—E. O. McCormick, vice president of the Southern Pacific Railway, in an interview today at The Chicago Club, stated:

"I recently spent several days in the orange groves of Southern California. Growers estimate this season's crop will amount to at least 40,000 cars of oranges. Weather conditions have been ideal and the fruit has matured perfectly. In fact, I have never tasted better oranges."

"Arrangements have been completed by the railroads to move the oranges in refrigerator cars, which will insure the delivery of ripe fruit in perfect condition."

The recent rainfall on the Pacific slope, while unusually heavy, have been of immense benefit to orchards and agriculture in general. At no period in my knowledge of California has the outlook been so favorable for good crops and prosperous conditions for employer and employee."

Selwood Widow Weds.

H. Back of the Superior court, and three married daughters of the bridegroom were present at the ceremony.

Mr. Schneider, a well known character of Vancouver, last year made a trip to the Fatherland for the first time in more than 30 years. He remained there about five days, finding that all of his old friends and relatives had died and he was treated as an intruding stranger.

What the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions.

Orpheum—Thursday-Friday.

The lengths to which a man will go to aid a friend, is the theme on which the two part Kaleid feature, "Her Husband's Friend" is based. A stronger character than "Charles Dane" has never been shown in motion pictures and Tom Moore ably plays this role while Alice Hollister takes the part of the foolish wife. According to the story, Dane discovers Alice, the wife of his best friend, about to elope with another. He makes her see her folly and rather than have her husband discover the truth he faces disgrace silently. How the truth is finally told and Lund learns of Dane's nobility, results in a scene which goes straight to the heart.

"Her Face Was Her Fortune" Edison. The first of Mr. Wood B. Wedd's sentimental experiences. Featuring William Wadsworth and Elsie MacLeod. Mr. Wood B. Wedd suddenly decides he wants a wife. Tall, short, dark, light, thin, fat—it matters not. After several unsuccessful proposals he reads the ad of a wealthy California girl who is looking for a soul mate. He rushes out there to find a bearded lady.

"The Charmed Arrow." Selig. A pretty love story of a prehistoric brave who loses his sweetheart because he doubts her, and through the centuries his spirit searches for her until the modern times the reincarnate man finds her again.

Pastime—Thursday-Friday.

Picture number two of "The Adventures of Kathlyn" will be presented at this theater on Thursday and Friday. It is entitled "The Two Ordeals," and is in two parts. The opening scene shows the dunbar, where the Council of Three decides that Kathlyn, on her refusal to become the wife of Umballah, shall be given a week's respite. During the week Bruce, an American hunter, arrives in Allaha and proves a timely factor in the fortunes of Kathlyn. Still refusing to wed Umballah, at the end of the fateful week, the Council of Three decrees that Kathlyn must undergo two ordeals with wild animals, which if she accomplished successfully will entitle her to remain a maiden queen. The first required that Kathlyn should be human bait on a leopard's trap; the second, that she should be cast into the arena with hungry lions. She escapes in both instances by the aid of Bruce. In the second test Bruce blows up the mine of Kathlyn, at the end of the fateful week, the Council of Three decrees that Kathlyn must undergo two ordeals with wild animals, which if she accomplished successfully will entitle her to remain a maiden queen. The first required that Kathlyn should be human bait on a leopard's trap; the second, that she should be cast into the arena with hungry lions. She escapes in both instances by the aid of Bruce.
